VOL. V. NO. 210

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

LONG SHOTS' DAY.

Long shots had an inning yesterday at Harlem, and if the pikers and sharpshooters did not lay up winter money they have no one to blame but themselves.

Starting in with the Old Nick, Satan himself, at 20 to 1, long-priced horses won every event with the exception of the third, which went to Silver Fizz, the even money favorite, and she barely beat Oconee, a 15 to 1 chance.

The greatest sensation came out of the fourth race. This was at one mile under selling conditions and had twelve starters. Violet Parsons was favorite at 8 to 5, but after lying second to the stretch she faded away and finished fifth. The winner turned up in Intriguer, who was at one time in the betting as good as 100 to 1. At this price handicapper Ed O'Malley and several of his friends bet on him. O'Malley thought pretty well of it and tried hard to get Ben Falk to bet on him but the latter gave him the laugh and said he was crazy.

O'Malley may be crazy at times, but in this instance he had the laugh on Falk and incidentally feathered his nest for the winter. Intriguer ran more like a 1 to 2 shot than a 100 to 1 chance. He got off second, but went to the front when he got ready down the backstretch and smothering his field for speed, won away off by himself by ten lengths. Golden Rod, a 50 to 1 chance, was second and Finian third.

If ever a lot of bookmakers were out of line on the price of a horse, they were on Bertha Nell in the last race. This filly has started but once on local tracks before and that day finished third at six furlongs to Free Lady and Jim Gore II. in 1:13 1/4 with 103 pounds up. In yesterday's race she only had 95 pounds up still 30 to 1 was offered against her. The filly was heavily played all three ways and every book in the ring lost over her victory.

With a bad horse like Montgomery a 7 to 5 favorite the "wise ones" are always on the lookout for some long shot that has a chance, and in this instance they scored and scored heavily. Montgomery had no excuses. He got a flying start and was never bothered. On the other hand Bertha Nell got away in the middle of the field and was interfered with more or less but stood it gamely and coming through with a rush on the far turn she headed Montgomery in the stretch, and after a driving finish won by a neck.

Crocket's easy win from Carnero and Mizpah was a "fazer" to the talent. The race was thought to be strictly between the two last named and a ton of money was bet on them at 8 to 5. Crocket and Bishop Reed, the only other starters, were nibbled at at about 8 to 1. The two outsiders always had the race to themselves and finished one, two. Bishop Reed broke in front and led to the stretch. Here Crocket passed him as though he was tied and, going right on about her business, won cleverly by a length. Carnero, two lengths back of Bishop Reed, beat Mizpah three-quarters of a length. The latter did not near run his race.

Tommy Burns rode one of his bad races on Barataria in the second event, but his luck was so strong and the horse was so much the best that he won in spite of it. Barataria got away last and trailed the bunch to the half mile ground. Here Burns made a bluff about going through on the inside, then he charged his mind and started to go around. He fooled away much time in this way, and eventually, on the far turn, he made up his mind to go around. When he hit the head of the stretch he was fourth on the outside, but gained rapidly in the run home, and won rather easily at the end by about three-quarters of a length. Had Barataria not been much the best it is doubtful if he would have been "in the money."

Satan won the first race simply because he was a better stayer than Gussie Fay. The latter had a commanding lead at the head of the stretch, but hung when the pinch came and was beaten by a narrow margin.

In winning the third race Silver Fizz displayed rare gameness. She was off poorly and under pressure all the way but stood it gamely and catching the fast tiring Oconee about twenty yards out beat her about a length.

In the first race Fly Lotta was crowded near the half mile post and fell, severely injuring her jockey, Boland.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A steeplechase course is to be laid out at the New Orleans track, and jumping contests will be one of the frequent features of next winter's meeting. Several stakes for jumpers will be given. In addition to the stake there will be frequent purses for the jumpers, while the management has decided on an innovation, that of giving occasional races on the flat for horses that have been placed one, two, three in jumping races, the winners for which will be accorded a steeplechase race.

Henry Schroeder, Chicago, (1) $150,000 paid for Omande b. Mr. W. O. B. McDonough of San Francisco. (2) When a two-year-old Hamburg was beaten in four races, the winners in order being Bowling Brook, Archduke, Requit and Previous. He also lost his first race as a three-year-old. Bowling Brook and Previous defeated him for the Belmont Stakes at Morris Park.

CALIFORNIA ITEMS.

Alex Shields will race a string of horses at the State Fair.

Dick Haver will start the runners at Oakland during the meeting.
The new track at San Bruno will be ready by the last of October.

It is said there will be one hundred days' racing at the Montana tracks next season, to be divided between the tracks at Anaconda, Butte and Great Falls.

The betting privilege of the State Fair was awarded to B. W. Cavanaugh & Co., of Sacramento, their bid being $17,762.50, and $500 additional for a one mile running handicap. The program privilege was sold to Frank W.
Leavitt, who bid $825 for it.

Marcus Daly will race a big string of horses here next winter, some twenty-seven in all. The veteran Dan Dennison will train and manage the stable, which will be headed by the crack handicap horse Isador, one of the best weight-packers in the country. Some Bitter Root yearlings that are reeling off three furlongs in the neighborhood of 38½ seconds at this early stage will also help to make up the stable.—

Winner—Ch. g. by Siddartha—Boetitia.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving to the limit; second, third and fourth were also under keen pressure. Satan won simply because he outgamed Gussie Fay. The latter is a very speedy filly, but is a non-stayer. She will be hard to beat at four and one-half furlongs. In this race she was very badly ridden. Satan was fortunate in getting away well and ran a game race. He was long overdue. In Debt ran to the mark. Tildy Ann did not. She had no excuses either. Beauchamp got her away second and she met with no bad racing luck. There was an ugly looking jam at the half mile ground and Fly Lotta got a bad fall. Jockey Boland was badly hurt. The field was so large that the race was hardly a truly run one.

Scratched—14313 Ocorino, 106; 14034 The Rush, 109; 14118 Calceon, 109; 14196 Brownie Anderson, 103.

Overweights—Irish Jewel, 21 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Lisbon—Aala Lela.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won cleverly at the end after a hard early drive. Barataria was miserably ridden and had not been far the best he could not have won. Burns had the gelding in and out and all over the track and rode him like a beginner. Hanlight appeared to be winning at the head of the stretch but quit badly under pressure at the end. Simon D. seemed stiff and sore and ran below expectations. He will do better on a muddy track. Countess Irma quit at the end. It was a very ordinary lot.

Scratched—13851 Double Dummy, 104; 14320 Necedah, 102.

Winner—Ch. f. by Silver Fox—Tonique.

Post 6 minutes. Start straggling. The first four were doing their best. Silver Fizz ran a cracking good race, and won because best. The filly was off poorly and had a rough journey but stood it like an aristocrat. Crowhurst made his run too soon with Oconee. She was in a good position on the turn but Crowhurst in his effort to get through bumped into and almost threw Erla d'Or. The latter would have been a keen contender but for this. Wig was coming fast under punishment in the stretch, but for some unknown reason Burns let up on him. True Fit stopped in a stride at the head of the stretch. Lady Curzon can do better. Highland Lad had no chance when the barrier went up.

Corrected weights—Wig, 106.

Silver Fizz, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Oconee, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Erla d'Or, show, 6 to 5. Wig, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Swigert—Floretta.

Off at the first break to a fair start. Won very easily; second hand ridden; third and fourth were driving to the limit. Intriguer won running away. He had the most speed and spreadeagled his field. Golden Rod got second place about as easily as Intriguer won. Fintan ran a fair race. Tony Licalzi did well from a poor beginning. Violet Parsons had no excuses. The route was possibly too far for her. Little Singer ran a very bad race. It was an inferior lot. Scratched—14310 Warren Point, 106; 14292 Elidat, 107.

Intriguer, place, 20 to 1; show, 8 to 1; Golden Rod, place, 15 to 1; show, 6 to 1. Fintan, show, evens. Tony Licalzi, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Violet Parsons, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. f. by Linden—Crotchet.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won cleverly. The others were doing their best. Crocket ran a fine race and had considerable left at the finish. Bishop Reed was right there and fighting hard for the money all the way. He lost a lot of ground by making a wide stretch turn, but this cut no figure with the result. Carnero was under pressure all the way. Mizpah ran below the notch. He seemed to be running easily on the far turn, but when Nutt let him down he had nothing left to respond with.

Crocket, place, 6 to 5. Bishop Reed, place, 8 to 5. Carnero, place, 2 to 5. Mizpah, place, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Fib—Vologne.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving hard; second, third and fourth doing their best. Bertha Nell went through her field like a flash on the far turn and at the head of the stretch seemed to be winning easily but she weakened at the end and had to be hustled along to win. Rose went to sleep on Montgomery. Had he gone on about his business instead of looking around he probably would have won. Canova took the shortest route and finished strong. Mark Iola. She ran a much better race than the figures show. Harry Thoburn and Teno both showed speed but stopped under pressure at the end. There was nothing doing on Alabaster. He was out of place.

Scratched—14178 Flora Louise, 95; 14291 Jim Gore II, 96.

Bertha Nell, place, 10 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Montgomery, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Canova, show, 1 to 2.
